

CAMINO HACIA LA NUEVA VIDA, A.C.

The purpose of the A.C. is as follows:

- a) To promote the sustainable integral and spiritual development of the human person.
- b) To promote Social Justice and Solidarity between the people; and these with the diverse authorities, contributing of significant way to the reduction of the poverty in the most vulnerable sectors, through design and development of welfare programs.
- c) To promote, to foment and to impel by means of courses, conferences, talks and symposia, familiar integration through values and spirituality and Faith.
- d) To orchestrate schemes of support between those who have resources and those that lack them, by means of the charitable and social action, collecting funds, promoting integral values, fomenting, coordinating and operating the procuring of goods and services, in all modalities; helping to the promotion and personal, labor, academic, cultural, artistic, professional, economic and spiritual development of each person.
- e) Through grants and contributions, the operation, administration, promotion, and of welfare programs, such as: Medical and hospitable clinics, lodging and shelters, services, cultural and sport schools and centers; in general, all those activities which foment and enrich physically, mentally and spiritually to the human being and its families.
- f) Through grants and contributions, to provide the people with limited resources of: food, medicine, clothes, footwear and domestic equipment.
- g) Execute all acts and agreements, execute the operations and grant the documents necessary for fulfilling its purpose, receive all kinds of grants and contributions in order to achieve its purpose.
- h) The training for the work, the investigation and education in all levels of knowledge.
- i) Specifically the execution of any agreement and act related to its purpose.
- j) To be associated with other Foundations, Societies or Associations of similar aims, to give mutual aid, as well as to interchange ideas and experiences
- k) The accomplishment of any type of promotion that the law allows, in the country or abroad that tends to achieve the goals and to obtain any documentation that is necessary for the development of the purpose before public administration.
- l) To acquire or to own by any means allowed by the law all class of personal or immovable property that is necessary, useful or convenient for the accomplishment of its purpose; to mortgage or to burden in any form allowed by the law the buildings and goods that the Association by any legal title owns.
- m) The elaboration, publication, impression and distribution and sale of the works, drafts, memories, communications and material of cultural, spiritual and educative investigation related to the goals of the Association for its diffusion at local, national and international level
- n) The elaboration of drawings for the obtaining of financial cooperation from individuals, particular institutions and national authorities to achieve the goals of the association.